Shafiq Gafar Shaikh. ..Applicant.
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra. ..Respondent.

Mr. P.B. Shah, Advocate for the Applicant.
Mr. K.V.Saste, APP. for the State.

CORAM : R.S. MOHITE,J.
DATED : 10/7/2006.

P.C.

1. This is an application for grant of bail. The applicant is shown as an accused in C.R.No. 82/2005 registered by Khandala Police Station, District Pune for alleged offences under Section 394 and 342 read with 34 of the I.P.C. The earlier bail application of the applicant has been rejected by (V.M.Kanade, J.) on 16.2.2006 but liberty was given to apply again if the trial is not over within a reasonable period of time. The present application is made after about four months. It appears that the allegation in the complainant was that some spare parts of the machinery of the value of Rs.32,885/- were stolen by certain persons. The applicant was identified in the Identification parade. In the identification parade no particular role is ascribed against the present applicant. It appears that the vehicle of the present applicant was used for the commission of offence. It also appears from the record that there are six crimes registered against the applicant. The Advocate for the applicant states that the applicant is willing to reside beyond Satara District and will report to Bhosari Police Station which is near to his residence. He states that in Pune City the applicant will reside In Balaji Nagar Zopadpatti, Bhosari. In the circumstances, pending his trial in pursuance of Cr.No.82/2005 registered by Khandala Police Station, the applicant may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.15,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the condition that he should report to the Station House Officer, Bhosari Police Station once in a fort night on every first and third Mondays between 11.00a.m. to 5.00p.m. He is directed to enter the Satara District during the course of trial and on the said dates he will also report to the Investigating Officer of Khandala Police Station before returning back to Pune.

. Application is disposed off.
